(printed on one side of the white inner tray)

At Natures Deli, we are committed to the highest standards of quality and transparency. As part of our ongoing quality checks, we have identified that a small batch of this product was mislabelled and may contain grains (rice & oats).

This means it may not be grain-free as stated on the packaging. Only the batch with Expiry Date 04/10/25 and Code GB558E198 TW2491/V is affected.

We want to reassure customers that no other Natures Deli products are impacted, and this is an isolated issue.

If your dog has a grain intolerance and you have purchased this product, you can return it to the store where it was purchased for a full refund or exchange.

We sincerely apologise for any inconvenience and appreciate your understanding. If you have any concerns, please contact the retailer or reach out to us directly.
